

NO-NAME RHUBARB CAKE

4 cups chopped rhubarb
1 (3oz.) pkg. strawberry gelatin
1 pkg. white cake mix
½ cup sugar
1 cup cold water
5 Tablespoons melted butter

Layer the ingredients as evenly as possible in a 9" square pan in the following order: rhubarb, sugar, gelatin, cake mix, water, butter. (Both the cake mix & gelatin are added dry.) Don't mix! Bake at 350° for about 45-55 minutes.

Lana writes: "My parents have always received wonderful gifts of local rhubarb from customers at their barber shop. Many years ago we began looking for something new to make with it, and I found this recipe in a cookbook. Although we can't remember the original name of the recipe, we've enjoyed making--and eating it ever since."
